The committee shall

- 8.1 Have delegated responsibility for determining the policy for directors' remuneration and setting remuneration for the company's chair and executive directors and senior management, including the company secretary, in accordance with the Principles and Provisions of the Code
- 8.2 Establish remuneration schemes that promote long-term shareholding by executive directors that support alignment with long-term shareholder interests, with share awards subject to a total vesting and holding period of at least three years, and a formal policy for post-employment shareholding requirements encompassing both unvested and vested shares.
- 8.3 Design remuneration policies and practices to support strategy and promote long-term sustainable success, with executive remuneration aligned to company purpose and values, clearly linked to the successful delivery of the company's long-term strategy, and that enable the use of discretion to override formulaic outcomes and with malus and clawback provisions applying to the annual bonus and share based remuneration to recover and/or withhold sums or share awards under appropriate specified circumstances.
- 8.4 When determining executive director remuneration policy and practices, consider the Code requirements for clarity, simplicity, risk mitigation, predictability, proportionality and alignment to culture.
- 8.5 No director or senior manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration outcome. The board itself or, where required by the Articles of Association, the shareholders, should determine the remuneration of the non-executive directors within the limits set in the Articles of Association.
- 8.6 In determining remuneration policy, take into account all other factors which it deems necessary including relevant legal and regulatory requirements, the provisions and recommendations of the Code and associated guidance. The objective of such policy shall be to attract, retain and motivate executive management of the quality required to run the company successfully without paying more than is necessary, having regard to views of shareholders and other stakeholders.
- 8.7 Review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy.
- 8.8 Within the terms of the agreed policy and in consultation with the chair and/or chief executive, as appropriate, determine the total individual remuneration package of each executive director, the company chair and senior managers including base salary, pensions arrangements, benefits, bonuses, incentive payments and share options or other share awards. The choice of financial, non-financial and strategic measures is important, as is the exercise of independent judgement and discretion when determining remuneration awards, taking account of company and individual performance, and wider circumstances.
- 8.9 Approve the terms of the service contracts for Executive Directors (under which the duration of notice periods shall not normally exceed one year) and any material amendments to those contracts and to ensure that contractual terms on termination, and any arrangements or payments in connection with the individual's cessation of office or employment (including the terms of settlement agreements or similar), are fair to the individual and the Company, that failure is not rewarded, the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised and that any payments are consistent with the remuneration policy.

- 8.10 Have full authority to appoint remuneration consultants and to commission or purchase any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary at the expense of the company. However the committee should avoid designing pay structures based solely on benchmarking to the market or on the advice of remuneration consultants.
- 8.11 Review the design of all share incentive plans for approval by the board and, where required, shareholders. For any such plans, determine each year whether awards will be made, and if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards for executive directors and senior managers, and the performance targets to be used.
- 8.12 Review workforce remuneration and related policies.
- 8.13 Work and liaise as necessary with other board committees, ensuring the interaction between committees and with the board is reviewed regularly.
